

Explore Naturopathy at Rejou

Nestled in the lush landscaped gardens with pavilions and courtyards, Madhubhan Resort and Spa now houses a wellness haven called Rejou. Spread across 13,000 sq.ft., this spa offers the opportunity to unwind and get away from the tensions of the outside world.

Here the soothing aromas of fragrant herbs and spices compliment the beauty of natural surroundings, thereby facilitating the process of holistic relaxation and rejuvenation. Carefully selected team of experienced & dedicated professionals help the guests to achieve fruition of their wellness goal.

The latest addition to the wellness facilities at Rejou is the naturopathy section that stimulates the latent healing power of the body by helping one align with the positive healing forces of nature. The unique part of the naturopathy section at Rejou is the understanding that no two human bodies are the same. In fact, every treatment at Rejou is bespoke and begins with an hour long consultation with the in-house doctor.

The package at Rejou includes sunbathing, mud therapy, hydrotherapy, colon irrigation, acupressure, acupuncture, emotional detoxification, therapeutic massage, yoga, physiotherapy and much more.

Le Cirque Launches New Summer Menu

Le Cirque at The Leela Palace New Delhi, the iconic restaurant chain's first venture in Asia, brings to its guests a cuisine which is an entertaining mix of flavours and colours amidst a candle-lit chic ambience and sophisticated atmosphere. In the beginning of June, the restaurant has unfurled its French-Italian summer menu for the summer season.

Le Cirque's new menu has tempting dishes like Rock Lobster Salad with melon melody and orange citronette, the Tuna Steak Hache with pistachio crust and raisin mint dressing and the Olive Oil Poached Black Cod in fresh tomato and burnt eggplant. The menu also includes Porcini Soft Lava, a nice mix of broccoli crush and truffle butter sautéed vegetables, which can rejuvenate the guests after a long day.

The Le Cirque restaurant at The Leela Palace New Delhi also offers an impressive wine list with over 80 labels of Italian wines and 100 labels of French wines. Located on the 10th floor of The Leela Palace New Delhi, the restaurant has 144 seats with an avant garde bar lounge and alfresco seating, offering a wonderful view over the majestic diplomatic enclave.

Sinclairs Grew During Hard Times

Sinclairs Hotels Limited, which owns and operates hotels and resorts at Siliguri, Darjeeling, Dooars, Ooty and Andamans, has posted revenues of Rs.225.30 million during the last financial year ending 31st March 2014, which was higher as compared to that of Rs.195.94 million during 2012-13, reflecting an increase of 15 percent.

The modest growth in revenues is praiseworthy as it came amidst a very difficult period for the hospitality industry. The gross operating profit of Sinclairs Hotels Limited for the 2013-14 fiscal was Rs 61.50 million as compared to Rs 40.71 million during its previous financial year of 2012-13.

On this occasion, Navin Suchanti, CEO and Managing Director at Sinclairs Hotels Limited, said, "Sinclairs' performance is a reflection of the quality of its products and service at all locations. Our customer-centric approach focuses on delivering outstanding value for money and a truly memorable guest experience. With strong performance of its existing properties and two new properties to be commissioned in the current year, Sinclairs is well poised to post high growth in the year."

Sinclairs is presently implementing three greenfield projects at Kalimpong, Burdwan and in Kolkata. In a significant development, the company received the final sanction for its 114 room upscale business hotel project on one acre of land, in New Town Rajarhat, Kolkata. Meanwhile, its 48 room and suite luxury resort project in Kalimpong will open in the second quarter of this fiscal year. In addition, the company's Tourist Resort project in Burdwan is in final stages of implementation and will be commissioned during the current fiscal year as well. Both Kalimpong and Burdwan are located in West Bengal.
