“Excellent choice for both couples and family”

Reviewed 1 week ago

It is a truly luxurious resort. Very well maintained with friendly staff. The food in all the restaurants inside the property is delicious. They have a dedicated Chai Bar offering varieties of chai and pakodas. Its picturesque with little ponds and lots of trees around. Their Sunday brunch is highly recommended. And finally and most importantly they have the best spa we have ever had so far. From the ambience to the therapists, everything was excellent.

A day trip to world heritage site Champaner

Champaner is a historical city in the state of Gujarat. It is located in Panchmahal district, 47 kilometres from the city of Vadodara. The city was briefly the capital of Gujarat. It was founded by Vanraj Chavda, the most prominent king of the Chavda Kingdom, in the 8th century. He named it after the name of his friend and general Champa, also known later as Champaraj. Champaner is today the site of the Champaner - Pavagadh Archaeological

Park, which UNESCO designated a World Heritage Site in 2004. Sultan Bhegada also built a magnificent Jama Masjid in Champaner, which ranks amongst the finest architectural edifices in Gujarat. It is an imposing structure on a high plinth, with a central dome, two minarets 30 meters in height, 172 pillars, seven mihrabs, and carved entrance gates with fine stone jalis.
