A tale of happiness

We stayed just for a day but will be repenting till such time we plan a longer trip just to enjoy this resort. Beautiful landscaping, very good hospitality, friendly staff...all wonderful facilities you can ask for in a resort.

The vastness of the place itself is impressive. Also a wide variety of cuisine also will allow you to enjoy your longer stay.

Also don't forget to enjoy the deserts at Akaiberry- just on the entry of the resort..Also very popular with students of the area for a very competitive pricing.

Would love to stay anytime...

A day trip to world heritage site Champaner

Champaner is a historical city in the state of Gujarat. It is located in Panchmahal district, 47 kilometres from the city of Vadodara. The city was briefly the capital of Gujarat. It was founded by Vanraj Chavda, the most prominent king of the Chavda Kingdom, in the 8th century. He named it after the name of his friend and General Champa, also known later as Champaraj. Champaner is today the site of the Champaner - Pavagadh Archaeological Park, which UNESCO designated a World Heritage Site in 2004. Sultan Bhegada also built a magnificent Jama Masjid in Champaner, which ranks amongst the finest architectural edifices in Gujarat. It is an imposing structure on a high plinth, with a central dome, two minarets 30 meters in height, 172 pillars, seven mihrabs, and carved entrance gates with fine stone jalis.
