18th June Happy Father's Day

“The child is the father of the man” - William Wordsworth

In the above-mentioned paradox and habits inculcated during the early days of our childhood, the poet refers to the quality of upbringing, whether the person chooses to wear good or bad and everything about him or her is a reflection of how their father taught them as kids.

A father, the leader of the family, the guarding angel for their children, the hero to every daughter and the mentor to every son, holds a place which is beyond "just special".

As kids grow up, they learn to differentiate between the right and the wrong, learn to make their own decisions and move ahead in life, finding their identities in the world. However, the person that we become is the product of mentorship providing a pillar of strength.

A father not only wins the bread and buys us toys & ice-creams. But they make us understand the power of goal setting, sticking to them to get past the struggle and teach us the importance of hard work and sacrifice through exercise, making us strong and stout.

So this Father's Day, Team Madhubhan displays gratitude to all the fathers, father figures & mentors and thanks them for the resourceful, versatile and impactful roles they play, all the sacrifices they make in lives for the well-being of their children.

A day trip to world heritage site Champaner

Champaner is a historical city in the state of Gujarat. It is located in Panchmahal district, 47 kilometres from the city of Vadodara. The city was briefly the capital of Gujarat. It was founded by Vanraj Chavda, the most prominent king of the Chavda Kingdom, in the 8th century. He named it after the name of his friend and General Champa, also known later as Champaraj. Champaner is today the site of the Champaner - Pavagadh Archaeological Park, which UNESCO designated a World Heritage Site in 2004. Sultan Bhegada also built a magnificent Jama Masjid in Champaner, which ranks amongst the finest architectural edifices in Gujarat. It is an imposing structure on a high plinth, with a central dome, two minarets 30 meters in height, 172 pillars, seven mihrabs, and carved entrance gates with fine stone jalis.
