Cheers to 2nd

ANNIVERSARY

of Rang Rasiya

It feels as if it was just yesterday when a stimulating thought of rolling out a weekly newsletter for our guests was born. The idea behind this thought was to assist our guests and provide them with quality information directed at happenings, facilities and services at Madhubhan Resort & Spa.

After enough brainstorming and formation of a dedicated team, we named this project - "Rang Rasiya - Saptahik", Madhubhan's own weekly newsletter.

And here we are, already celebrating the second anniversary of Rang Rasiya this week. Rang Rasiya is not just a promotional newsletter which encompasses offers and promotions. It also features a column from a senior member of the management, creating a dialogue with the guests. It also features details of activities alongside a calendar, glimpses of celebrity visits at Madhubhan, recipe corner from our expert master chef, rewards & accolades, health & naturopathy tips, places of interest and most of all, moments of important celebrations held by Madhubhan.

While at Madhubhan, join us for a morning Yoga, Tennis and Pilates session or a guided local excursion which you would cherish with your loved ones. Be it participating in a baking class, hands-on pottery lessons or a Unique Dining Experience with your loved ones, Rang Rasiya - Saptahik has all the information you need to add that extra zing to your stay. Please visit our website www.madhubhan.com and subscribe to our weekly Newsletter and keep yourselves updated with the invigorating happenings at Madhubhan.

I take a moment to extend my sincere gratitude on behalf of Team Madhubhan to all our guests for your continued and valued support in making our initiative, a success.

Happy reading!

Beautiful place to spend with family

WORLD'S MOST TRUSTED TRAVEL ADVICE

It's the world's most trusted and followed travel review portal and is regarded very high by the travelers and the travel industry equally. TripAdvisor gives a platform to the travelers to give their unbiased opinion about a property.

My family and I had gone to Madhubhan Resort and Spa for one night and it was just beautiful. The resort itself is quite large so there is a lot to explore. We went during rainy season and after the rains they cleaned up everything really well. There are several pools so you can choose which pool you want to go to and they don't add too much chlorine so your eyes don't sting. The rooms are beautiful - we stayed in the cottage room (which is not really a cottage) and it was large, spacious with a really nice bathroom with a shower cubicle and marble bathtub overlooking the resort. The breakfast has a great selection of both Western and Indian foods.
