NAVRATRI

BUFFET

AT 24 SEVEN

12:00
MIDNIGHT
TO 3:30 AM

Navratri is a special festival that every Gujarati eagerly awaits for. From teenagers to grown-ups, everyone seems to be drawn to the magical spell that Garba casts.

Navratri is the longest Hindu festival of worship, music, and dance. For nine continuous nights, the custom of first worshipping Goddess Durga, followed by an aarti and then finally Garba is performed. The much-awaited time when almost all the people of Gujarat, dressed in their finest Garba attire, sway in rhythm on euphoric beats of the traditional music played and sung live.

In Gujarat, the spirit of their culture still lives with the locals and people passionately associate with Navratri, Dussehra, and Garba. The local shops and markets begin to dazzle with traditional Gujarati attire for the festival, designer dresses, trinkets and jewellery of all kinds. The mood gets vibrant and the nights start to dazzle with Garba participants, dressed in beautiful and vibrant dresses ready to play Garba all night long and Navratri begins with great pomp and show.

Madhubhan Resort and Spa specially gears up for the nine nights of Navratri and showcases a special "Midnight Navratri Buffet". Keeping in mind the Garba hours, this delicious buffet curated by widely experienced Chef Arvind includes chaats, live-counters, traditional Gujarati savouries, handpicked exotic preparations, choice of desserts, various tantalizing delicacies and a feel of a local Khao Gali throughout the dazzling days of festivity.

To avoid any last-minute disappointments, it's recommended to make reservations ahead of time, for your convenience.

On this occasion, Team Madhubhan wishes you a joyous and eventful festive season and happy nights of Navratri.
