

Shubh Deepawali

The festival of lights - Deepawali is just around the corner. Undoubtedly the biggest festival of India, Deepawali is known for decorative lights, fireworks, extravagance and exuberant celebrations. The day also marks the Hindu New Year and is celebrated as the day of auspicious beginnings.

Deepawali falls on a moonless dark night. This five-day festival is celebrated as the homecoming of Lord Rama with wife Sita and brother Laxman, after a sworn exile of fourteen years. The natives of Ayodhya lit earthen lamps welcoming Lord Rama. Deepawali which literally translates to lines of earthen lamps is usually celebrated by lighting oil lamps, ornamental lightings and everything appears lit, symbolically meaning the win of good over the evil.

Deepawali is the time of indulgences and sweets. The festival brings traditionally made foods, delicacies, savouries and sweets. On this festival, Madhubhan puts together a "Special Deepawali menu" curated just for the occasion with fun-filled activities. Relish the best traditional preparations alongside a vivid exotic menu, special live-counters and exclusive Deepawali desserts served with delight.

Commonly, the tradition of bursting firecrackers and fireworks with family is an unmissable event. However, Madhubhan Resort and Spa is a promoter of a clean and green India and requests our patrons to enjoy Deepawali, free of noise or other pollutants. As the festival takes over, entire family becomes one, in exuberance, celebrating happiness and offering prayers to Goddess Lakshmi and Lord Ganesha.

As festivals are about coming together and sharing joy, Madhubhan extends warm greetings, impeccable hospitality, culturally rich experiences and wishes everyone a dazzling festival of lights.

GUEST REVIEW

Gem of Gujarat

The long-awaited trip came real. Whenever we planned an instant holiday and think of this place and, Madhubhan Resort was always full. Finally, during Navratri, we visited heritage Champaner and during our return, we just wanted to have lunch and after reaching there we decided to stay and got last room available for a good deal.

Nice place! Huge lawns and good decoration. Deluxe rooms are basic with a modern touch and shower in the bathroom. Villas are big with bathtub. Pool view rooms are also good. They have different activities available. Keeps kids occupied. The pool is large, clean..but till 7 pm only, considering long sunny, hot days it should be open until 8 pm.

Food needs special mention. Both dinner and the breakfast buffet are must-try, a lavish spread of delicious food, too many varieties..u can't even taste all..really 7-Star style. 1600 rs per person for buffet dinner may sound costly but it's worth it. So try to get dinner inclusive plan. There is a mall nearby with pizza hut and other restaurants to try. High tea they serve chai, pakora, pizza. (not in package). I liked environment-friendly move that in the shower they kept dispensers instead of small plastic bottles. We enjoyed our stay thoroughly and will return soon.
