

A timeless tale - MANDAVDI GOM COTTAGES

Human history is filled with marvels of architecture that have inspired design and also had tremendous social and cultural impacts. One such popular form of architecture that overshadowed most parts of present-day Gujarat was the Pol architecture. It was an interesting evolution of urban living spaces around the 17th-century metro housing that doesn't fail to impress.

Pol architecture was a remarkable housing model in which simple and elegant two-storied houses adorned with detailed woodwork, columns & fresco were built on both sides of narrow lanes, coming together as narrow colonies. A typical Pol would have one or two entrances often protected by gateways either blocked by walls or opening into another Pol.

Modelled as a cultural Gujarati village, Madhubhan Resort & Spa showcases Mandavdi Gom Cottages inspired by the rich Pol architecture. The Pols called Amba-Ni-Pol and Chikoo-Ni-Pol are beautifully designed modern lodging spaces with an appeal from the past.

With a simplistic look from outside, the interiors of the cottages are well ambient and furnished with rich modern-day amenities. The rooms open into expansive lawns on one side and the swimming pool access on the other side. A sunken bathtub open to the sky invites you to soak in, making your stay more relaxing.

These cottages are luxurious modern spaces built amidst original Mango and Chikoo orchards. A common area called 'Gom no Otlo' stands by a green orchard overlooking the longest swimming pool in Gujarat named 'Gom Ni Talawadi'. The cottages lead to a 'Khao Gali' that offers delicious late-afternoon refreshments.

So, what's the wait? Come and explore the timeless and soothing lanes of Mandavdi Gom Cottages, only at Madhubhan Resort & Spa.
